

Scratchworks Theatre Company – The Great Train Robbery

Lamyatt Village hall – Saturday 19th May 2018

“In the early hours of Thursday 8th August 1963, the heist of the century is under way. Signals are scrambled, phone lines cut and millions of pounds of cash – stolen. Five days later the first clues are found, the gang is busted and the rest is history.

But what about the ones that got away?

Join the four forgotten females as they leave behind their kitchen-sink lives and embark on a madcap adventure of mischief and mayhem. Using a raucous combination of physical theatre, live music and clowning, Scratchworks will unfold the untold tale of the unlikely female four....”

Sian, Alice, Hanora, and Laura presented the story with amazing energy and took the enthralled Lamyatt audience with them, back to 1963, and into the story – with some audience members helping to provide alibis, and backing music, along the way! This was a full octane performance!

What another great evening of theatrical entertainment in the extended village hall. Our thanks again to the cast, and Nathan in technical support, who brought their production from Exeter to rural Somerset with the help of promotion through our friends at Take Art.
