

Friday 15th Feb 2019 'KALI' with Indian Street Food:

Awe-inspiring, hilarious, mythical Indian Story telling in Lamyatt!

What a treat we had with this authentic, inspiring performance by story-teller Emily Hennessey and sitar-player Sheema Mukherjee in the village hall.

Hindu myth is a cosmic, mind-blowing world of rebirths and radical transformations. Kali is one of the wildest shape-shifters of all. Demon slayer, life saver, supreme mother, destruction dancer, this goddess is truly Awesome.

Storyteller, Emily Hennessey, and sitar player Sheena Mukherjee, enthralled and entranced the sell-out audience with a thrilling storytelling session, weaving traditional and modern Indian music, song, and Kathak dance. Emily transformed herself with subtle changes in facial expression and delicate movements, inviting audience participation at appropriate moments to take us on a journey of life and re-birth. High energy levels and magical musical accompaniment made for a great evening.

It's true to say that this performance was another great example of how the village hall committee has been able to work with Take Art to bring something very different to our wonderful performance space.

The audience was also treated to tasty authentic Indian street food before the performance, made by local villagers.
